Spencer, Miller and Miller Honored with President's Council Awards by Independent Cattlemen's Association of Texas

Lockhart, Texas – July 2, 2008 – For Immediate Release – Toni Spencer of Winnie, A.L. “Windy” Miller and Laurie Miller of Floresville, were honored with President's Council Awards during the Independent Cattlemen's Association of Texas 34th Annual Convention and Trade Show in Galveston, Texas. ICA President Peanut Gilfillian of Stowell, Texas, made the presentation June 27 during the annual luncheon.

The President's Council Award is presented annually to ICA members who go above and beyond in their hard work and dedication to the association and in their assistance to the president.

Toni Spencer has been very active on the Fundraising and the Convention committees for ICA. She has been a key player in the upgrades made to the annual drawdown. She owns M&J Fertilizer in Winnie.

President of his chapter, Windy Miller is a lifelong cattleman. He's ICA biggest advocate and it is said that if you stand still long enough, Windy will tell you about ICA-no matter who you are. Windy is working hard in increase membership and is helping to start a new chapter in the Hondo area.

Laurie Miller is currently the secretary of South Central Texas ICA and has served on the convention committee for ICA. She is also working hard on increasing membership and working to start that new chapter. She is very organized and keeps the guys in line!

ICA was founded in 1974 to provide strong leadership for Texas cow/calf producers and has grown to become the voice for thousands of cattle producers across Texas. For more information about ICA, visit www.icatexas.com.
